

“All she had to live on.”

Jesus uses these words to describe the title of a widow in Mark 12:41–44 (NIV), and these words could easily also be used to describe the pastors and widows Mission:Dignity® serves.

Countless hours of service, moves to unfamiliar cities and selfless tithes are just some of the sacrifices the pastors and widows we serve have given in faith — trusting that the Lord would provide each step of the way.

Their faith has not been in vain. The Lord has seen their witness and, thanks to your support, He is meeting the needs of these heroes of the faith through the ministry of Mission:Dignity.

In a recent note, Mission:Dignity recipient Jeanetta Watson told us of the Lord’s provision for her.

“Having served as a pastor’s wife for 45 years, I knew it was going to be hard to survive after my husband of 52 years passed on to a better life. I had faith that the Lord would provide, and through friends that are donors I learned about Mission:Dignity. Your generosity has allowed me to be independent and continue to do the Lord’s work at my church.”

God sees the faith of servants like Jeanetta, and He is using your generous giving to provide for them.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for giving in faith to provide for these servants of the Lord. We are praying with Jeanetta “for many blessings to each of you” this month.

Working together,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Kyle Scott". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending from the end.

Kyle Scott, D.Min.
Operations Manager, Mission:Dignity